2. The license to collect corundum in the said Taluk will be granted to the person who guarantees the highest minimum royalty.

3. If any person other than the owner of Survey No. 69 of Neradagunttahalli village of the said Taluk happens to be the highest bidder, the Government will acquire the surface right of the land in question and include it in the prospecting license to be granted to that person. The period for which the license may be granted shall be one year from the date thereof.

4. The fee for the license shall be Rs. 10 and the licensee will be required to deposit in the District Treasury the highest minimum royalty guaranteed by him within a week from the date of the sale. If the amount of guaranteed minimum royalty is not paid within a week, a resale will be held and the defaulting purchaser will be held responsible to make good any amount which may be less than the bid offered in the original sale.

5. The royalty to be paid by the licensee shall be Rs. 4 per khandi (850 lbs.) of corundum.

6. No corundum shall be removed from the licensed area without a written permit from the Amildar of the Taluk.
